

The Douai Bible: The Authorised Version of the Church of Rome (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Douai Bible: The Authorised Version of the Church of Rome. Its purpose was to train young men for the priesthood, who were to be sent back to their native land, as missionaries, in order to win back the people of England to the Roman Catholic faith. Here then, in the College of Douai, the work of making a new English translation was begun. The principal translator was a first-rate scholar, Dr. Gregory Martin, teacher of Hebrew and Biblical Literature at the College, with Dr. Allen and Dr. Bristowe as Coadjutors. Both Testaments, the Old and the New, appear to have been ready for issue together, but lack of the necessary funds - our poor estate in banishment as the editor puts it - compelled them to be content at first with the issue of the New Testament only. Before this could be accomplished, however, political troubles had compelled the authorities to remove their College from Douai to Rhemes (sic) and there the new translation of the New Testament was published in 1582. Soon after this the English College was able to return to Douai. Here the Bible was completed by the issue of the translation of the Old Testament in two volumes in 1609 and 1610. This translation remained practically unchanged until the middle of the 18th century. In 1749-50 Dr. Richard Challoner, an Irish Bishop, undertook a thorough revision of the Douai Bible in five volumes.
