

England Under the Lancastrians (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from England Under the Lancastrians This, the third volume in the series of Intermediate Texts, links up the first, Miss Hughes Illustrations of Chaucers England with the second, Miss Thornleys England under the Yorkists, and the three provide a continuous series of contemporary documents illustrating all aspects of English history, from the accession of Edward III to that of Henry Tudor. The fourth volume in the series comes to more modern times and illustrates the reign of Charles II, while the fifth goes back to Henry III. Other volumes in preparation deal with England before the Norman Conquest and the reign of Elizabeth. It is proposed henceforth to issue a volume each year instead of one in two years, and thus to make more rapid progress towards the completion of the scheme, which is to provide a library of original materials for English history from the period of the Roman occupation to the outbreak of the Great War in 1914.
