Excerpt from Usury, Funds, and Banks: Also Forestalling Traffick, and Monopoly; Likewise Pew Rent, and Grave Tax; Together With Burking, and Dissecting; As Well as the Gallican Liberties, Are All Repugnant to the Divine and Ecclesiastical Laws, and Destructive to Civil Society

What shall I cry ? All flesh is grass, and the glory thereof as the flower of the field. The grass is withered, and the flower is fallen ; but the word of our Lord endureth for ever. Amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle will not pass from the law. Notwithstanding everyone useth violence towards it; particularly in those days when the falling off from the law and the Prophets, is so daring and general, that the end of the world seems not far distant. People, when first they are carried away from the law, through pride, ambition, the lust of the flesh, or love of sordid gain, find within, a monitor teasing and tormenting them; now it reminds the prodigal child of his lost dignity, and of his misery amidst the swine in the desert, and then it urges him to return with confidence to the bosom of his merciful Father. These motions and feelings of the fallen soul, arc but calls and graces from Providence, who wills not the death of the sinner. At one time he pays a visit by sickness or worldly afflictions; and at another, he pictures before us the eternal suffering of the damned, or the endless joy of the blessed As he says, Such as I love, I rebuke and chastise; be zealous, therefore, and do penance.
